Stewardship

Seventh Sunday of Easter

1 Peter 4:13-16

The Light of Contradiction

Our faith is at the center of our being. It forms part of our identity. We make decisions based on values we hold, and we cannot act contrary to what we believe without causing ourselves discomfort.

To share faith with someone is to share something close to the heart. Intimate friends often worship together and serve together. To pray aloud from the heart is to share something very private—how we think of God and how we talk to God.

For these reasons, when we meet someone who does not share our faith, the difference can cause strong feelings of distance. In the worst conditions, religious wars have been waged by peoples who think that God is on their side, even though their opponents believe the same.

The First Letter of Peter says, "If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you."

We all prefer to live in harmony with one another, but sometimes differences bring benefits. When someone disagrees with us or disputes with us, we think harder about what we believe. We understand our beliefs better in the light of contradiction.

If people insult us for our beliefs, we try to respond with charity. By putting our faith in action, even in the face of opposition, we are true to what we believe and we share it in the way we live. We can experience blessedness even in conflict.

Feast of St. Norbert

June 6 (1080?-1134)

Norbert realized that nothing could be effectively done without God's power. Finding this help, especially in devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, he and his brothers praised God for success in converting heretics, reconciling numerous enemies and rebuilding faith in indifferent believers. Catholic saints are holy people and human people who lived extraordinary lives. Each saint the Church honors responded to God's invitation to use his or her unique gifts. God calls each one of us to be a saint. (www.americancatholic.org)

Mrs. Debevec is Retiring!

As the school year winds down, our parish school is preparing to bid farewell to one of our beloved staff members, Mrs. Sally Debevec, who is retiring after teaching second grade here for 30 years! Easter Study: Resurrection!

We will continue our series on Resurrection and Afterlife this Wednesday evening, June 4, at 7:30 p.m. This series will reflect on Catholic belief in the afterlife as revealed in the Gospels, the Letters of St. Paul, and the Book of Revelation. This week's topics will be The Heavenly Jerusalem, based on the Book of Revelation, Chapters 21 and 22, and Ethics, Pedagogy, and the Afterlife, which will conclude the series.

These recorded presentations will be given by Professor Candida Moss, a professor of New Testament and Early Christianity at the University of Notre Dame. Each evening we will hear two 25-minute presentations with time for discussion after each section. Our meetings will be from 7:30 to 9 p.m., and it will be helpful for participants to bring a Bible.

Prayer & Meditation with Scripture

Our prayer group will gather in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel this Tuesday, June 3. This hour of prayer time utilizes varying prayer forms each week, including Lectio Divina, centering prayer, prayer of remembrance, Taizé prayer and Ignatian meditation. The prayer group is facilitated by Sr. Breda and Mary Prather. It is a time to meet with others in quiet and peace away from the busyness and noise of the world. We gather for prayer in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 7:30 p.m. Please feel free to join us—you are most welcome!

Wondering Why

This Sunday the Church celebrates the Ascension of the Lord, the post-Easter event when the disciples experience the last appearance of the Risen Christ as he returns to the Trinity forever united to the Father and Holy Spirit.

This solemn feast used to be called Ascension Thursday, and was celebrated 40 days after Easter, as that is the time given in Acts of the Apostles between the Resurrection and the Ascension. So, why did it change from a Thursday holy day to a Sunday celebration? Bishops have the authority to decide in their own dioceses what Holy Days are observed, and when. In some dioceses, this feast still falls on a Thursday, in our Diocese it is moved to a Sunday. Actually, we do not know what day of the week it was when Jesus ascended into heaven. In John's Gospel it seems to happen very quickly, in conjunction with the Resurrection. Matthew does not specify a time, and Mark does not mention the event at all in the oldest texts of that Gospel, and only in an addendum which was added on to the Gospel probably in the second century and written by someone other than the original author. Luke's gospel mentions the ascension of Jesus as the last of his appearances, but without mentioning a time frame, but the same author continues his story in the Book of Acts of the Apostles, which is where the 40 days appears.

Forty is one of those mystical numbers that appear in scripture. It is not intended as a literal number falling between 39 and 41. The number 40 is always a sign of some transforming event, of completion, or promises fulfilled. Basically, it just means "when the time was completed." We can find many incidents of the number 40 in the Bible: the days and nights of rain in the story of Noah, the years the Israelites spent in the desert, the number of days Moses was on Mt. Sinai, the time it took Elijah to walk to Mt. Horeb, the number of days Jesus fasted in the desert. In the ascension story, Jesus' physical time on earth is completed, he returns to his eternal reign in heaven and commissions his disciples to continue his ministry of healing, forgiveness and love.

But, without the immediate physical presence of Jesus, that may have seemed an impossible goal. The disciples are uncertain how to begin, and go back to the upper room where they had celebrated the last supper with Jesus, secluding themselves in prayer. We hear in Acts of the Apostles that they prayed together until the Jewish Feast of Pentecost. That would have been nine days of prayer, which is the origin of our Catholic devotional tradition of Novenas.

Before he left the disciples, Jesus had made a promise. They would not be left orphans, but rather he would send the Holy Spirit upon them, who would continue to teach them, and who would remind them of everything that Jesus taught and did. They did not know what that meant, so they waited and they prayed. And, when the Spirit came upon them they were filled with energy to set out on their mission of telling the whole world about Jesus, a mission that continues today in all of us.

In our lives we all face impossible missions at times. We may all sometimes feel that the Lord has left us alone, and we may feel inadequate, frightened, and weak. But Jesus promised that God would continue to dwell with us in the Person of the Holy Spirit, and when we pray and wait for the presence of the Spirit in trust and hope, we find the way, we are led to where we need to be, and the impossible becomes possible, with God through Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Gertrudis se lo dijo a Elena. Elena llamó a Archí y éste llamó a Ileana y a Eduardo. Eduardo se lo dijo a Violeta. Violeta se lo comunicó a Clara y a Camilo. Y así se fue corriendo la voz. No, no se trataba de compartir el último chisme. Era una cadena de oración, que iba añadiendo nuevas intenciones a la lista, para pedirle al Espíritu que inspirara el corazón de muchas personas y las trajera a la próxima misión parroquial.

El Evangelio y la primera lectura de esta semana de Pascua nos presenta a personas que dedican tiempo a orar por la misión de la Iglesia. Jesús comienza esta cadena de oración en el aposento alto orando para que sus discípulos puedan cumplir su misión en la tierra. Después de la ascensión de Jesús al cielo Lucas presenta a los discípulos reunidos de nuevo para orar. Antes de ir a cumplir su misión necesitan sabiduría, fortaleza, conocimiento y todos los muchos otros dones del Espíritu Santo. Es a través de la oración que ellos recibirán esos dones. Y una vez que han comenzado su misión nuestra segunda lectura nos recuerda que ellos sufrirán, dudarán y serán perseguidos. Una vez más la oración será necesaria a fin de poder perseverar para la gloria de Dios. Si es que vamos a participar en esta misión no nos atrevamos a romper la cadena de oración que comenzó con Jesús.

Vanishing of the Bees 87 Minutes, 2010

Honeybees have been mysteriously disappearing across the planet, literally vanishing from their hives. Known as Colony Collapse Disorder, this phenomenon has brought beekeepers to crisis in an industry responsible for producing apples, broccoli, watermelon, onions, cherries and a hundred other fruits and vegetables. Commercial honeybee operations pollinate crops that make up one out of every three bites of food on our tables. It examines the alarming disappearance of honeybees and the greater meaning it holds about the relationship between mankind and mother earth.

Live in a Christ-Like Manner

In the Cursillo Movement we approach evangelization as a very natural act of being Christ-like within each of our daily activities. We realize that while most people would like to live their lives in a Christ-like manner, the pressures of the world often make this difficult, if not impossible. The Cursillo Movement provides a method and a technique to provide each of us with the tools, the mentality, the strength and the support to make this natural type of evangelization possible. If you would like to bring Christ into your life, take the first step and sign up for Cursillo. The next Cursillo weekends will be in October 2014. Please contact Ron Accornero at (714) 396-7295 for more information about Cursillo.
