Reflecting on God's Word

Easter Sunday

My friend the storyteller Bob Wilhelm shared an "artful" variation on the story of the choice of Matthias. Both Matthias and Barsabbas were artists, so St. Peter decided on a contest. He divided the upper room where the community gathered for worship with a curtain, giving half to each man to decorate as he saw fit. The community would declare the winner and Judas' successor.

Barsabbas, a painter, sent for his brushes and a rich assortment of paints. All week long he painted lovely scenes of Jesus preaching, teaching, healing, casting out demons. His brush captured the parables, illuminating them. Matthias, a stonecutter and polisher, also toiled all week behind his curtain. People could hear only his humming and soft singing.

The day came and the people entered Barsabbas' half of the church. They broke into applause at his artistry. The uses of color were magnificent. They found themselves depicted in his paintings. They were delighted. Peter became worried. How could Matthias' work possibly compete with this? But he went over to the curtain and turned it back.

Silence filled the room as people turned to see what Matthias had done. His work had been to polish the stone walls of the chapel's other half, allowing people to see themselves as never before. The walls shone like mirrors and every person was given a sense of the beauty of Christ shining within them, a glimpse of the divine spark each one carried within. And so Matthias was chosen to replace Judas. He had revealed Christ by revealing Christ's followers to themselves.

*I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord;
whoever believes in me will never die.*

We rejoice in the victory of Jesus Christ over death:
by rising from the tomb to new life he gives us new hope and promise.
It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and homes with his love.
It is Christ, risen from the dead, who is our source of hope, joy and comfort.
May our Risen Lord fill your home with light and love.

Assisted Suicide Legislation

Let your voice be heard! SB 128, the "assisted suicide" bill, is currently under consideration by California lawmakers. Doctor-prescribed suicide endangers the disabled, seniors and other vulnerable groups. Tell your elected officials to vote "NO" on SB 128.

Go to the California Catholic Conference website: www.cacatholic.org Click on the Take Action! button under Urge a "No" Vote on Assisted Suicide, fill in the information requested, click Submit, review the e-mail (you can make simple additions), and then confirm Submit.

While you are on the California Catholic Conference website, consider joining the Catholic Legislative Network. This is a very good way to stay informed about legislation pertaining to Catholic teaching.

Thank you for your dedication to taking action supporting Catholic teaching of the sanctity of life from conception to natural death.

Divine Mercy Novena & Divine Mercy Sunday

In preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy, we will be praying the Novena and Chaplet for nine consecutive days, beginning on Good Friday, April 3 through April 11. The Novena and Chaplet will be said privately on Easter Sunday.

Please join us in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel each day after the 8:30 a.m. Morning Prayer or Mass for this beautiful devotion. Let us ask God for guidance and mercy as we walk through these difficult times together.

We will celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday at the 12 noon Mass on April 12. There will be an opportunity for veneration of the Divine Mercy image and a first class relic of St. Faustina during the singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet or after Mass. Saint Pope John Paul II granted a plenary indulgence to the faithful, under the usual conditions, with participation in the Feast of Divine Mercy.

Theft & Vandalism

Church parking lots are an easy target for thieves. Please be especially careful this Easter Sunday. We ask that you observe these simple precautions:

- Lock your vehicle.
- Do not leave anything in plain sight that you would not want taken or would tempt a thief to break a window to gain entry (such as money, GPS systems, cell phones, packages, purses, etc.).
- Keep an eye out for suspicious activity and contact the parish office.
- Watch out for one another.

R.C.I.A.

Congratulations to our Neophytes who were Baptized, Confirmed and received Holy Communion at the Easter Vigil, and to those who were received into Full Communion with the Catholic Church. We welcome you as new members of our faith family.

RCIA sessions resume on Thursday, April 16. Our newly baptized will be talking about the Resurrection of Jesus and what that means to them. The following week they will be reviewing the parts of the Mass with Pete Moriarty. Our growing group of Inquirers will continue reflecting on their own faith stories, and learning about the weekly Scripture readings.

Anyone desiring to become a Catholic is welcome to begin the Inquiry Process on Thursday evenings at 7:30. In order to be received into the Catholic Church by Easter 2016, it is necessary to begin the process during the Easter Season this year.

Two New Bible Studies after Easter

On this Monday morning, April 13, we will begin an 8-part series on the Biblical texts regarding Mary. This study is accompanied by a DVD with beautiful photography of the places in the Holy Land associated with the life of the Virgin Mary. In this outstanding presentation, walk with Mary through the Easter season visiting those places dear to her heart and to her Son. We will meet in the Ministry Center Library from 9:15 to 11 a.m. For more information contact Mary Prather at (714) 709-3768. A workbook will be available to participants for a suggested donation of $25.00.

On Wednesday evenings, beginning April 29, we will offer an 8-part series on the Gospel of John. This study will be presented by Charlene Dumitru, with periodic supplements of 30 minute DVD presentations by scripture scholar and professor, Luke Timothy Johnson. The Gospel of John is proclaimed liturgically during the most important holy days of the Christmas and Easter Seasons, and is quite different from the Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark and Luke. John emphasizes the Glory of God present in Jesus his Eternal Son. We will meet in the Ministry Center Library from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Please read John, Chapter 1 prior to the first meeting.

Prayer & Meditation with Scripture

Praying with Scripture will NOT meet on Tuesday, April 7. We welcome you to join us on Tuesday evening, April 14, when we will resume our weekly reflection the Sunday Scriptures in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel at 7:30 p.m. This weekly hour of prayer time utilizes varying prayer forms each week, including Lectio Divina, centering prayer, prayer of remembrance, Taizé prayer and Ignatian meditation. It is a time to meet with others in quiet and peace away from the busyness and noise of the world.

Words of Faith

One more message from our Neophytes. Mony Sambeth was baptized Saturday evening at the Easter Vigil. This is what he was thinking just before that event.

"I and [my] Father are one." (John 10:30) I believe that there is one God in the form of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. God the father is the creator; the Son Jesus Christ lived a perfect life; the Holy Spirit is alive through the church. It is through my faith and prayers that will offer me salvation on the day of my judgment. I've walked through the valley of darkness for 35 years, being baptized Easter 2015 will bring me to the light and I will be a new man. It has been a blessing for the last year to be in RCIA as I've strengthen my beliefs in my church, I find myself praying more often and as often as I can, and that there is more meaning when I am at church. I trust that God will continue to walk with me and protect me from the immorality of our world; it will be up to me to choose correctly and make the right decisions that conform to my Christian principles. No path in life is without obstacles; the path of Christianity nowadays is one that is hard as we are judged more often and critically. I will remain open-minded with the changing society but will be vigilant in holding onto the Catholic Church doctrines. I have conviction that the church will always be there for all us and provide the helping hand that one needs from time to time. I am a sinner and not perfect, I will make every effort to repentance 3-4 times a year and receive my Communion each Sunday. Mony

A little background about Mony. He was born into a culturally Buddhist, but non-practicing family who did not place much emphasis on religion. Reaching adulthood, Mony varied between atheist and agnostic, but did not spend much time really thinking about religious issues. He married a beautiful Catholic bride, agreed to a Church wedding, and never interfered with her faith but felt it was not something he needed for himself. That all changed when the couple's first baby was born. He shared with our RCIA community that standing in the delivery room, looking down on his first-born child, he was filled with a certainty of God's existence, and of deep gratitude for this gift of new life. As the Scriptures say "and a little child will lead them." (Isaiah 11:6)

Congratulations to all our Neophytes: Mike, Mony, Drew, Monserat, Nicholas, Daniel, Emily, Cinthia, Nathan, Christian, Leslie, Carlos, Anabella, Ismael, and Sherlyn. Those who were baptized will be wearing their white Baptismal robes to Sunday Masses during the Easter season. Please take the time to say hello to them when you see them.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Domingo de Pascua

¿Podemos “entender” un misterio? Dada la imposibilidad de llegar jamás a entender del todo la Resurrección, lo más acertado es imaginarnos que extendemos nuestros brazos y abrazamos este gran misterio, o mejor aún, imaginarnos a Cristo resucitado abrazándonos y así acercarnos más a este misterio.

Esto nos lleva a Tomás, que fue la primera persona que trató de entender a Cristo resucitado, insistiendo que si sus amigos que estaban reunidos en esa casa querían que creyera en lo que él sólo podía concebir como una sandez, tenía que tocar las heridas del Señor resucitado. Tal parece que a Jesús eso no le pareció un problema.

Nunca hemos sabido si Tomás llegó a tocar las heridas de Jesús, pero en cada Segundo Domingo de Pascua se nos relata esta historia acerca de Tomás y el Señor resucitado, que nos da ánimo para valorar más el misterio de nuestra fe y aprender a profundizarlo al confesar que Jesús es Señor y Dios, y que esto que creemos se refleje en todas nuestras actividades diarias sobre todo en nuestro trato con los demás.

¿No crees que cuando Tomás salió de esa casa aquel día sabía que la Resurrección era algo que él no podía callar, y también que todo su ser se llenó de ardor y luz absorto por haber estado en la presencia del Señor resucitado? ¿Será posible que esto mismo nos suceda a nosotros?
