Stewardship

Shepherding

If you've never lived on a farm, it is easy to have a rather romantic image of a shepherd. A shepherd's duties, however, demand much more than holding a beautifully carved staff and calmly watching the flock. The shepherd must ensure a supply of fresh grass and hay in the winter, assist births, treat illnesses, and guard the sheep from attacks by predators. The shepherd must keep the flock together, build and take down temporary shelters, remove manure from holding pens, and move the sheep to new pastures when necessary. Scorched by the sun or chilled by bitter cold, the shepherd can never leave the sheep untended without risking injury to the flock. Sheep were first domesticated around ten thousand years ago in the Middle East. They continue to provide human communities with wool, meat, and milk today. Among Jewish people in ancient times, wealth was measured in terms of livestock: sheep, goats, and cattle. Sheep—especially lambs—were the favored animal of sacrifice to God. It is no wonder, then, that the scriptures are woven through and through with references to sheep and shepherds, culminating in the image of Jesus as the Good Shepherd, who cares for even the least of his flock, and as the Lamb sacrificed for our sins. In our Church today, some of us are irritated by the thought of ourselves as sheep and disappointed in or even angry with those who are our appointed shepherds, namely our bishops, priests, and deacons. Here are two things to consider: How much better would we be as Jesus' "little flock" if we stuck together and followed the Good Shepherd, and how much stronger would our clergy shepherds be if we not only showed our support for their efforts, but also helped them to hear the voice of the Holy Spirit in the flock that they guide?

Dear Friends in Christ,

Because we have consistently not been able to provide enough Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at the Sunday 12 noon Mass, we are going to return temporarily to the practice of providing Communion under one Species, that is to say, under the form of the Bread, and not the Wine. Whether one receives the Body, the Blood or both, one still receives the fullness of the Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Christ, so it in no way diminishes our participation in the Sacred Mystery.

With few rare exceptions over the intervening centuries, reception of the Body of Christ, and not the Blood, remained the norm in the Latin Rite of the Catholic Church until the 1975 edition of the Missale Romanum (Roman Missal), which allowed for 14 instances in which Communion under Both Species could occur. Some regions, including the U.S., were granted experimental privileges to distribute Holy Communion this way, but these expired in 2005. Our current General Instruction of the Roman Missal states that:

"Communion under both kinds may be permitted as follows:

- a) for Priests who are not able to celebrate or concelebrate
- b) for the Deacon and others who perform some duty at Mass
- c) members of communities at the Conventual Mass or the "community" Mass, along with seminarians, and all those engaged in a retreat or taking part in a spiritual or pastoral gathering."

If it sounds like Communion under both kinds is not envisioned in this permission, you are right, except that the Instruction continues:

"The Diocesan Bishop also has the faculty to allow Communion under both kinds, whenever it seems appropriate to the Priest to whom charge of a given community has been entrusted as [its] own pastor, provided that the faithful have been well instructed and there is no danger of the profanation of the Sacrament or that the rite would be difficult to carry out on account of the number of participants or for some other reason."

What we are experiencing right now is a practical issue that needs to be resolved. I intend to begin soliciting for new Extraordinary Ministers to assist at the noon Mass so that once we have a sufficient number of properly catechized and committed ministers, we can return to our customary practice

Fr. Bruce

Mother's Day Novena Cards

Mother's Day is next Sunday, May 14. The best gift of love that one can give is to offer a Mass for our mothers, both living and deceased. Mother's Day Novena cards are available in the vestibule of the church or in the Ministry Center Office. Please place the donation envelope in the collection basket or bring your donation to the Ministry Center. Please be sure to write down the name of your mothers so that she can be remembered in prayer. The customary donation for Novena Masses is $10.

Christian Service Food Collection

In May we are collecting fruit cups, applesauce cups and 3 oz. packages of Jello. Kindly leave your donations in the Ministry Center any time during the month. Thank you for your continued assistance in helping us feed those who are hungry.

Weekly Parish Offering

Thank you for your continuing support of St. Norbert Parish. For the fiscal year July 1, 2016, to June 30, 2017, our parish budget calls for $26,520 to be donated weekly at the Sunday collection. The collection for Sunday, April 30, was $23,601.65. These collections are not only for operating expenses each week, but also for any ongoing repair work, upgrades, etc. to our parish facility. Your regular donations are needed for the good of St. Norbert Parish and the spread of the Gospel.

Mother's Day Orchid Sale

May 13 & 14

Celebrate the blessing of motherhood. Buy a fresh orchid plant for Mom this Sunday for $20 or $25 each. This is Hispanic Ministry's annual Mother's Day flower sale. Beautiful hothouse orchids will be available for sale on the Ramada after all Masses. Proceeds will be used toward a scholarship fund for catechists in training. We thank you in advance for your support of Hispanic Ministry and our catechists.

Senior Luncheon

All seniors 60 years and older are invited to a senior luncheon and health presentation sponsored by the Order of Malta's Parish Nurse Program on Wednesday, May 17, from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Family & Youth Center. The topic for discussion will be Healthy Brain Aging and Alzheimer's Research. Chelsea Cox, Associate Director of Education for the Institute for Memory Impairments and Neurological Disorders at UC Irvine (UCI MIND), will lead a presentation on Alzheimer's Disease, including current research, advances, treatments, along with risk factors and new diagnostic tools. She will address how one can lower their risk of developing Alzheimer's Disease, and will share with us the role of UCI MIND, both in the national research agenda and as a local resource. A delicious catered lunch will be provided to all in attendance, along with blood pressure screening and door prizes. There is no cost for this event. Please R.S.V.P. by next Sunday, May 14, to Ann Bilash, RN at (714)637-4360 x128. We are unable to accept R.S.V.P.s after this date.

Collection for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

This weekend, May 6 and 7, we will have a one-time collection for the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception is the nation's preeminent Marian shrine, and is oftentimes affectionately referred to as America's Catholic Church. Open 365 days a year, the Basilica is host to nearly one million visitors annually, attracting pilgrims and tourists alike from across the country and around the world. Proceeds from this collection will assist with the completion of the central and final dome in mosaic, The Holy Trinity. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Respect Life Team

Thanks to our Mothers

Next Sunday we celebrate Mother's Day, a day when we give special thanks to our mothers who do so much for us. They sacrifice their time to help us grow with their motherly love. We give flowers, prepare dinner, and share our time to return a small portion of the love they have given us.

There are also teenagers who are pregnant and teenage mothers who feel they have nowhere to go. We must also give thanks for these young mothers who have chosen life for their babies, despite the fact that many of them have no family to support them or nowhere to turn for help. Thankfully, Mary's Shelter offers these girls the support and help they desperately need. But Mary's Shelter needs our help to help these mothers.

Please come and learn about this local dedicated Pro-Life organization on Saturday, May 13, at 9:30 a.m. in the Mother Teresa/Dorothy Day Room upstairs in the Ministry Center. Ellen Roy, Executive Director of Mary's Shelter, will discuss how Mary's Shelter is helping these young mothers and what we can do to help.

Ministerio Hispano

Pastorear

Para quien nunca ha vivido en un rancho o una finca es fácil hacerse una imagen romántica de un pastor. Sin embargo, las tareas de un pastor exigen mucho más que llevar un cayado hermosamente tallado y cuidar ociosamente de su rebaño. El pastor debe asegurarse de que hay suficiente hierba fresca y heno para el invierno, ayuda en el parto de las ovejas, les da tratamiento durante sus enfermedades, y las protege de los depredadores. El pastor debe mantener junto su rebaño, construir y desmontar las tiendas temporales, limpiar el estiércol de los corrales, y llevar a su rebaño hacia nuevos pastos cuando sea necesario. Abrazado por el sol o congelado por un frío cortante, el pastor nunca puede dejar abandonadas a sus ovejas, pues las podría exponer a toda clase de riesgo. Las ovejas fueron domesticadas originalmente en el Medio Oriente hace alrededor de diez mil años. Hoy siguen proporcionando lana, carne y leche a la comunidad humana. Los judíos de la antigüedad median la riqueza según el ganado, ya fueran ovejas, cabras o ganado vacuno. Las ovejas, sobre todo los corderos, eran los animales preferidos para ofrecer en sacrificio a Dios. No en balde las Escrituras están repletas de referencias a ovejas y pastores, culminando con la imagen de Jesús como el Buen Pastor que cuida aun de las más pequeñas ovejas, y el Cordero sacrificado por nuestros pecados. Algunos de nosotros en nuestra Iglesia de hoy nos irritamos por la idea de considerarnos ovejas, y nos desilusiona o tal vez hasta nos enfadamos con aquellos que son considerados los pastores, como nuestros obispos, sacerdotes y diáconos. Pongamos en consideración estas dos cosas: ¿Cuánto mejor estaríamos como “pequeño rebaño” de Jesús si nos mantuviéramos unidos y siguiéramos al Buen Pastor? Y, ¿cuánto más dinámicos serían nuestros pastores (el clero) si además de mostrarles apoyo por sus esfuerzos les ayudáramos a escuchar la voz del Espíritu Santo en el rebaño que ellos guían?
