Stewardship

What do you want?
What do you need?

Imagine wearing the same dress, day in and day out, for one whole year. A Seattle woman, Alex Martin, did exactly that. She made the biodegradable brown dress and wore it with different sweaters, jackets, hose, and a little jewelry. She washed it every couple of days and hardly anyone noticed that she was wearing the same dress every single day. Martin said she wanted to protest over-consumption and the intensive marketing directed especially to women about what makes a person good, attractive, and interesting. Clothes, accessories, and makeup are a big part of this image, and the investment of time, effort, and money in personal appearance is immense. While Alex Martin is right in one respect—we are pushed and prodded to buy “stuff,” often to imitate a certain lifestyle portrayed in the media by many celebrities—most of us aren’t going to stop shopping altogether or make our own biodegradable clothing. Yet we still need to ask ourselves why we feel compelled to expend so much effort on our outer appearance. How does that stack up against the attention we give to our inner self? Whom do we aim to impress? Ourselves? Other people? Why? In today’s first reading King Solomon, already a rich man, could have asked God for more riches, the defeat of his enemies, or a long life. Instead, he asks for an understanding heart that knows right from wrong, so he can better fulfill his responsibilities as king. God grants him wisdom, and he uses the gift not for himself alone but for the good of all. Perhaps you dream of winning the lottery or making a fortune. Pray, rather, for the inner gifts you need to help build the kingdom of God.

Respect Life Testimony

My name is Joy Greco-Yanez and I’m a first generation American. I am a member of the St. Norbert Respect Life Team. Both my parents immigrated to the U.S. from Southern Italy. My father immigrated when he was very young leaving his large family to come to the U.S. for a better life. He was sponsored by an uncle who had previously immigrated to the U.S. His uncle’s sponsorship meant that he would be financially responsible for my father’s immigration to the U.S. by providing him a place to stay and obtaining work for him. My father started off working in a coal mine in a small town in Utah. He immediately learned to speak and write English, became a U.S. citizen and eventually started working as a traveling salesman selling high end tailored suits to professionals. He invested in real estate and sent money back home to his family in Italy to help make their lives better.

On one of his trips back to Italy in 1954, he met and married my mother. In 1955, he brought her back to the U.S. I was born a year later. Italian was my first language. Our Catholic faith and our small little church were a big part of our lives. We had lots of Italian friends who had also immigrated from Italy, including farmers, a shoemaker, owners of family stores/restaurants, the pediatrician that delivered many of us children and our parish priest. The most difficult part of immigrating for my parents was leaving behind their close-knit large families in Italy, but they always expressed their gratitude for the opportunity for a better life for themselves and their children. My parents also sponsored many of their family members to immigrate to the U.S. the same way my father’s uncle had sponsored him. My mother has always been a homemaker taking care of the home, children, grandchildren and she also did some babysitting as we were growing up. My parents instilled in us hard work ethics, the importance of our Catholic faith, strong family ties, Italian traditions, and always made us feel very proud to be Americans.

Liturgical Tech Ministry

We are introducing a new ministry whose mission it is to serve the liturgical assembly with projected song texts for Mass. We are looking for individuals who wish to serve our St. Norbert community as Liturgical Tech Ministers by helping with the PowerPoint slide presentations one Sunday per month as part of a bigger LTM team. If you are interested in being part of this ministry, please call John Erhard at (714) 637-4360 x126 or send an e-mail to jerhard@stnorbertchurch.org

Weekly Parish Offering

Thank you for your continuing support of St. Norbert Parish. For the fiscal year July 1, 2017, to June 30, 2018, our parish budget calls for $26,470 to be donated weekly at the Sunday collection in order for the Parish to break even. Weekly collections that are less than $26,470 require the use of our reserve account to pay our expenses. The collection for Sunday, July 23, was $25,266.53. These collections are not only for operating expenses each week, but also for any ongoing repair work, upgrades, etc. to our parish facility. Your regular donations are needed for the good of St. Norbert Parish and the spread of the Gospel.

Choir Fire

I have always loved to sing, especially my favorite hymns at Mass. I joined my church choir because I wanted to be able to sing out more freely. The choir experience is very gratifying and enables me to work with others and to express myself more fully. Choir is about teamwork, community, and developing a stronger understanding of music. It is a way for people to connect with one another and to participate in a highly rewarding activity. Choir is a safe, warm, and accepting environment. Alan Garcia

Music has always been a large part of my life, but it was only after I joined the choir that I felt God's call truly fulfilled. I was drawn to the St. Norbert choir because I enjoyed the music they sang and the harmonies that blended so beautifully. The wonderful people in the choir and the music that we sing keep me coming back week after week. If you are looking for a great ministry to be part of, I wholeheartedly recommend joining the parish choir.

Ministerio Hispano

¿Qué
quieres? o
¿Qué
necesitas?

Imagina ponerte
la misma ropa
todos los días

durante un año. Alex Martín, una mujer de Seattle hizo eso mismo. Se hizo un vestido biodegradable de color marrón y se lo puso todos los días con diferente suéter, chaqueta, medias, y con muy pocas joyas. Lo lavaba cada dos días y casi nadie se daba cuenta de que era el mismo vestido. Martín explicó que su propósito era protestar contra el consumo excesivo y contra la intensa mercadotecnia dirigida especialmente a las mujeres y a cómo ser mejores, más atractivas e interesantes. La ropa, los accesorios y los cosméticos constituyen una gran parte de esa imagen; y el esfuerzo y dinero que se dedica a la apariencia física son inmensos. Aunque Alex Martín está en lo correcto en que ciertamente se nos está incitando constantemente en los medios publicitarios, también es cierto que la mayoría de nosotros no vamos a dejar de comprar del todo ni a hacernos una ropa biodegradable. No obstante, debemos preguntarnos por qué nos sentimos obligados a poner tanto esfuerzo en nuestra apariencia física. ¿Qué comparación hacemos entre esto último y la atención que ponemos a nuestra belleza interior? ¿A quiénes queremos impresionar? ¿A nosotros mismos? ¿A los demás? ¿Por qué? En la primera lectura de hoy el rey Salomón, ya de por sí un hombre rico, hubiera podido pedirle a Dios aún más riquezas, la derrota de sus enemigos o una larga vida. Pero en lugar de todo eso él pide sabiduría de corazón para poder cumplir mejor sus responsabilidades de rey. Dios le concede la sabiduría y Salomón no usa ese don para sí mismo sino para beneficio de todos. Tal vez sueñes con ganarte la lotería o hacer una fortuna. Ora mejor para que se te concedan los dones necesarios para ayudar a construir el reino de Dios.

Testimonio de Respeto a la Vida

Mi nombre es Joy Greco-Yanez, y soy americano de primera generación. Soy miembro del ministerio de Respeto a la Vida de San Norberto. Mis padres emigraron a los E.U. del sur de Italia. Mi padre emigró cuando era muy joven, dejando a su numerosa familia para venir a los E.U. en busca de una vida mejor. Fue patrocinado por un tío que anteriormente había emigrado a los E.U. El patrocinio de su tío significaba que él sería responsable económicamente de su migración a los Estados Unidos, proporcionándole un lugar donde vivir y buscando trabajo para él. Mi padre comenzó a trabajar en una mina de carbón en una pequeña ciudad en Utah. Inmediatamente aprendió a hablar y escribir inglés, se naturalizó ciudadano americano y comenzó a trabajar como vendedor ambulante, vendiendo trajes de alta calidad a profesionistas. Invertió en bienes raíces y envió dinero de vuelta a su familia en Italia para ayudar a que tuvieran una vida mejor.

En uno de sus viajes a Italia en 1954, conoció y se casó con mi madre. En 1955, la trajo a los E.U. y yo nací un año después. El italiano era mi primer idioma. Nuestra fe católica y nuestra pequeña iglesia eran una gran parte de nuestras vidas. Muchos de nuestros amigos italianos también habían emigrado, incluidos agricultores, un zapatero, propietarios de tiendas o restaurantes, el pediatra que ayudó a nacer a muchos de nosotros y nuestro párroco. La parte más difícil de emigrar para mis padres fue que tuvieron que dejar atrás a sus familias en Italia, pero siempre expresaron su gratitud por la oportunidad de una vida mejor para ellos y sus hijos. Mis padres también patrocinaron a muchos de sus familiares para que pudieran emigrar a los Estados Unidos de la misma manera que el tío de mi padre lo había patrocinado a él. Mi madre siempre ha sido ama de casa, cuidado de la casa, hijos, nietos, y también cuidando de otros niños conforme crecíamos. Mis padres nos inculcaron la ética del trabajo duro, la importancia de nuestra fe católica, la familia, las tradiciones italianas, y siempre nos hicieron sentir muy orgullosos de ser estadounidenses.

Domingo Familiar

Acompáñanos este domingo 30 de julio, a nuestro Domingo Familiar después de la Misa de las 2 p.m. Ven a disfrutar de deliciosa comida típica junto con tu familia. Te esperamos.
